Disclosure of third-party code included in the contribution

< name/version>

Disclosure Statement:

> Besides original code, the contribution <name/version> contains code that is copyrighted by third parties. This document contains information about all third-party code that is included in the contribution. To the best of my knowledge, the information is correct and complete.

List of third-party components included in the contribution (fully or partially):

Name	Version	Applicable License(s)

Attributions:

> The following attributions and/or copyright notices (e.g. "This product includes code developed by John Smith") must be included in the documentation according the applicable license(s)

Component	Attribution(s), Copyright notice(s)

Full text of the applicable Licenses:

The license texts printed below are not present in the contribution (e.g. in a COPYING file):